

The Youth Homelessness Representative Council plays an important role addressing issues that affect young people at risk of, or experiencing, homelessness.

Applications are sought from young people (18-25) with life experience and an interest in youth and community work.

When and Why?

The group meet 4 times a year and is a great opportunity to meet like minded people, learn new skills, and have your voice heard.

Expenses paid, plus receive a $50 Woolworths Gift Card for every meeting you attend.
